FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

VS.

CHRISTINE GREENFIELD,

Defendant.

ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Christine Greenfield (Greenfield) (Filing No. 18). Greenfield seeks an additional fourteen days in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order (Filing No. 13). Greenfield's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Greenfield's counsel represents that Greenfield will file an affidavit wherein she consents to the motion and acknowledges she understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Greenfield's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 18) is granted. Greenfield is given until on or before August 31, 2007, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between August 6, 2007 and August 31, 2007, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 6th day of August, 2007.
